Elevate Her Collective announces “Elevate Her on the Plains” April 25

Auburn, AL. - April 22, 2026 - Elevate Her Collective is excited to announce its first-ever “Elevate Her on the Plains”, an event centered on bringing the Auburn community together and highlighting women that have made a strong impact. The speaker panel will take place at Neville Arena on April 25 starting at 9 a.m., with local Auburn boutiques, restaurants, and small businesses also being present.

The inaugural “Elevate Her on the Plains” will feature a speaker panel of influential women in the Auburn community. The panelists will include women in fields such as sports, business, politics, and more. These women will share their backgrounds, experiences, challenges, and insights into their careers and valuable lessons they have learned along the way.

The one-day session will begin Saturday morning with a social gathering, offering attendees the ability to meet and connect, enjoy refreshments and small bites from local Auburn restaurants, and engage with panelists. The first speaker panel will begin later in the morning, with lunch and giveaways following the first panel. Attendees will have an afternoon break but will come back for a night time panel with dinner provided.

“We are so excited to bring ‘Elevate Her on the Plains’ to our Auburn community and hopefully it will be a fun way for women in the area to meet and connect with one another,” said Susan Nunnally, one of our speakers at the event.

“Elevate Her on the Plains” is set for April 25, and in the meantime, local vendors and sponsors can still reach out if they would like to be part of the event.

Elevate Her Collective is a company committed to empowering female athletes by helping athletes build a brand, get valuable partnerships, and make lasting relationships.
